

MISSION NATIONAL BANK

“DO NOT TRACK” POLICY

Mission National Bank (sometimes, the "Bank," "we," "our," or "us") Sites do not process or respond to "do not track" signals or other similar web browser mechanisms which enable users to indicate an opt-out preference regarding the collection of personally identifiable information. By using our Sites, you acknowledge and agree that anonymous information may be collected.

As a visitor to our site, if you do not bank online with us, we do not collect, capture, or retain personally identifiable information when you are just browsing our online products and services.

As a visitor to our Sites, the web server automatically recognizes only the following:

- Network or device related information such as your internet provider. We do not track personal information like your email address.
- Aggregate information on which pages you visit, but no specific information on pages visited by an individual. The aggregate information we collect (for instance, how many "hits" on a particular Web page) is used only for internal review to improve the content of our Sites, and is then discarded.
